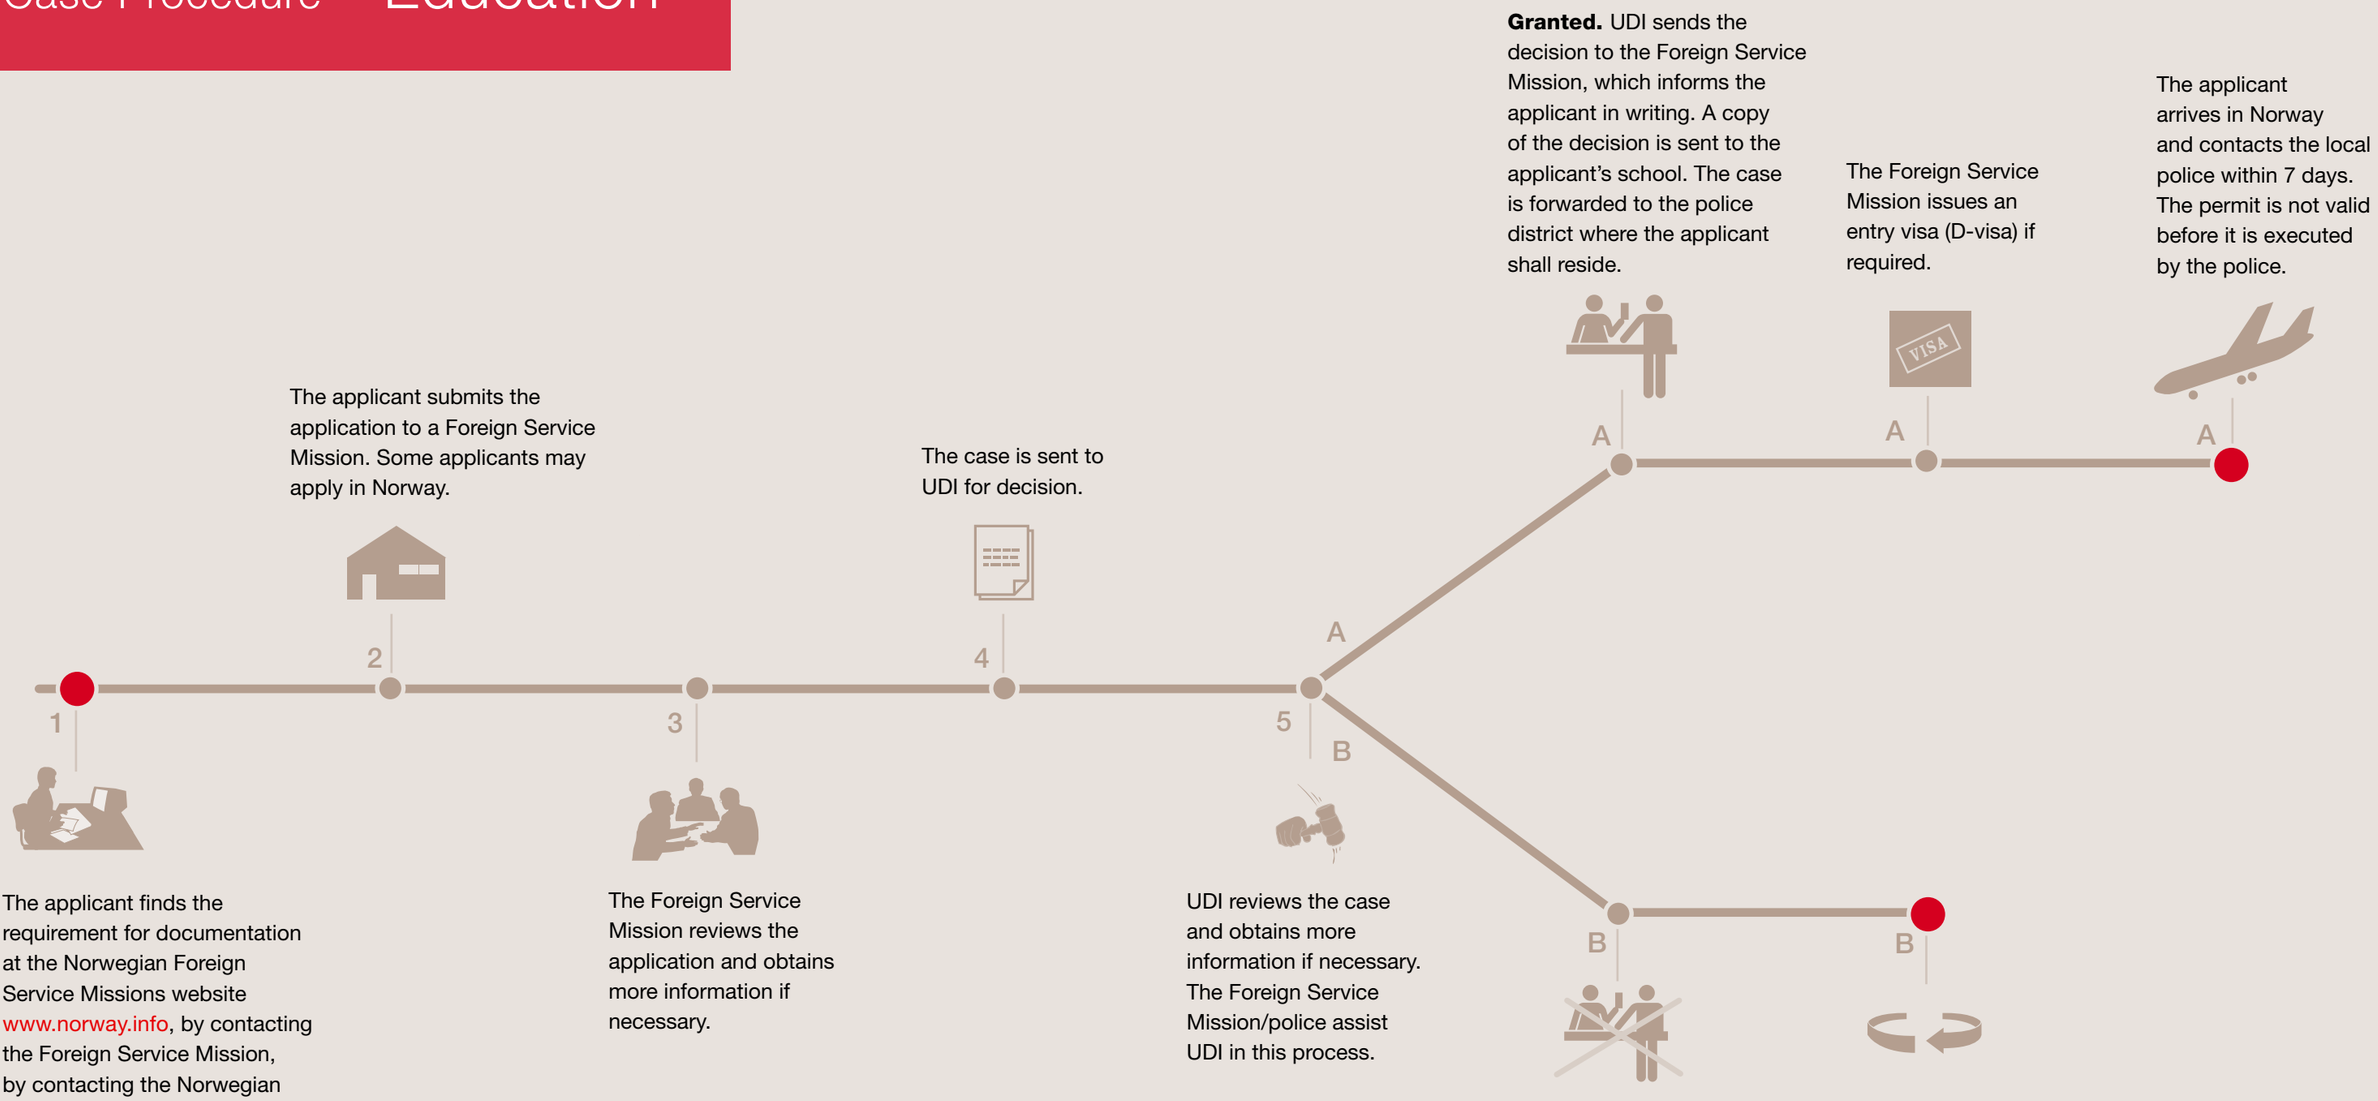
Case Procedure - Education



The applicant finds the requirement for documentation at the Norwegian Foreign Service Missions website www.norway.info, by contacting the Foreign Service Mission, by contacting the Norwegian Directorate of Immigration (UDI) or at www.udi.no.

The applicant submits the application to a Foreign Service Mission. Some applicants may apply in Norway.

The Foreign Service Mission reviews the application and obtains more information if necessary.

The case is sent to UDI for decision.

UDI reviews the case and obtains more information if necessary. The Foreign Service Mission/police assist UDI in this process.

Granted. UDI sends the decision to the Foreign Service Mission, which informs the applicant in writing. A copy of the decision is sent to the applicant's school. The case is forwarded to the police district where the applicant shall reside.

The Foreign Service Mission issues an entry visa (D-visa) if required.

The applicant arrives in Norway and contacts the local police within 7 days. The permit is not valid before it is executed by the police.

Rejected. UDI sends the decision to the Foreign Service Mission which informs the applicant in writing. Appeals must be submitted within 3 weeks. UDI informs the school about the decision.

Appeal. UDI makes a re-evaluation of the case. UDI may reverse its decision. If the rejection is maintained the case is forwarded to the Immigration Appeals Board (UNE) which makes a re-evaluation of the application. UNE's decision is final.
