Course description

| | |
|---|---|
| Course code and name | SFB12902Norsk som fremmedspråk IINorwegian as a foreign language II, (for international students only) |
| ECTS credits | 5 ECTS credits |
| Compulsory/Optional | Valgfag |
| Prerequisites | English and Norwegian I or equivalent. |
| Period | Spring semester |
| Language | Norwegian and English |
| Course type | Lectures |
| Hours pr week | 40 h language instruction + local visits on the topic society & culture in the spring semester. |
| Objective | The course builds on Norwegian for foreigners I, giving more extensive knowledge of Norwegian with more sophisticated texts. Students arriving in the Spring semester will get a crash-course and a self-study package to be able to follow Norwegian II as a separate unit.Local visits/trips will be organised to present aspects of Norwegian culture. |
| Content | Arriving in NorwayUsing town transportGetting accommodationJob and leisureStudyingSpending free time |
| Bibliography | A.Bjørnebek, L.L.Rykkja, R.Ziburkute*: Nøkkel til Norge*, SiU 1998Bridges to Norway, SiU 1998 |
| Requirements for exam | A written short essay handed-in during the semester |
| Assessment | A written test at the end of the semester. |
| Lecturer | Wenche Høidal |