

Students Graduated 1972-2002

Expenditure and Income Items 2002

Expenditure:

Facts and Figures 2002-2003

- Studies offered within the fields of Medicine, Pharmacy, Psychology, Law, Fisheries, Science and Mathematics, Social Sciences and the Humanities
- Four centres coordinate and promote the activity within specific disciplines: Centre for Saami Studies, The Roald Amundsen Centre for Arctic Research, Centre for Women's Studies and Women in Research (KVINNFORSK), Centre for Environment and Development Studies (SEMUT)
- One centre of excellence: CASTL – Center for Advanced Study in Theoretical Linguistics. There are also several other centres organised under the faculties, among others the Centre for Peace Studies and several centres within health research
- The University is also housing a Centre for Flexible Education (U-VETT), a Department of Learning and Teacher Education, Tromsø University Museum, and the University Library
- 6496 students were registered last autumn (2002). 57 % of these students were women, 70 % were from Northern Norway, 22 % from Southern Norway, and 8 % were foreign students
- 192 higher level students, 30 master's degree students, and 179 professional degree students graduated from the University in 2002
- 55 doctorates were sat in 2002, comprising 8 dr. art., 7 dr. med., 5 dr. philos., 3 dr. polit., 30 dr. scient., and 2. dr. psychol.
- 1646 man-years, of which 890 are academic
- The budget for 2003 is approximately 1.4 billion kroner

Strategic Fields 2002-2003

Strategic fields of research at the University:

- Arctic Research
- Marine Research
- Northern Lights and Space Research
- Social Medicine Research
- Research on Multi-Cultural and Multi-Language Societies
- Research on Sámi Culture

In 2001-2002, the University has particularly funded and strengthened research groups in:

- Cosmical Geophysics
- Theoretical Linguistics
- Marine Research at the Norwegian College of Fishery Science
- Reindeer Husbandry and Resource Management
- Functional Genomics (FUGE)

The research group in theoretical linguistics was in 2002 awarded Centre of excellence status

A national centre for structural biology was established at the Department of Chemistry in 2002

University of Tromsø

N-9037 Tromsø • Telephone +47 77 64 40 00 • Fax +47 77 64 49 00

Web-adress: <http://uit.no/>

Rector Jarle Aarbakke
Pro Rector Gerd Bjørhovde
University Director Arne Benjaminsen
Assistant Director Jan Larsen

Facts

University of Tromsø

2003

Studies Offered 2003-2004

Bachelor Programmes (3 years):

Economics
History
Religious Studies
Archaeology
Philosophy
Sociology
Social Anthropology
Political Science
Planning and Cultural Studies
Psychology
Educational Research
Art History
Classical Studies
Documentation Studies
Literature
Language
Language and Literature
Aquaculture
Biology
Physics
Geology
Computer Science
Chemistry
Mathematics and Statistics
Mathematics and Computer Science

Interdisciplinary Bachelor Programmes:

Fisheries
Business Administration
The Past and Present Multicultural Norway
Russian Studies
Health Administration
Language and Economics
Business Economics and Logistics

Integrated Master Programmes (5 years):

Landuse and Agriculture in Arctic Areas
Teacher Training in Natural Science and Mathematics (for Secondary Schools)
Teacher Training in Science and Mathematics (for Comprehensive Schools)
Teacher Training in Languages and Social Sciences
Pharmacy
Law
Dentistry (from 2004)
Fishhealth

Technological Programmes:

Industrial Mathematics
Computer Science
Molecular Biotechnology
Electrical Engineering
Space Geophysics

Professional Degree Studies (6 years):

Medicine
Psychology

One-year Studies:

Library Studies
Foundation Course in Medicine

Master Programmes (2 years):

Fishhealth
Fisheries
Biology
Aquaculture
Economics
Business Economics and Marketing
Business Administration (from 2004)
Coastal Planning and Management (from 2004)
International Fisheries Management
Physics
Geology
Computer Science
Chemistry
Mathematics
Statistics
Medical Biology
Health Science
Public Health
Archaeology
History
Religious Studies
Philosophy
Sociology

Political Science
Educational Research
Special Needs Education
Social Anthropology
Planning and Cultural Studies
Management and Organisation
Science
Nordic Medieval Studies
Peace and Conflict Transformation
Visual Cultural Studies
Indigenous Studies
Documentation Studies
Art History
Literature
Language

Master Programmes (18 months):

Public Health
Action Learning
Adult Education

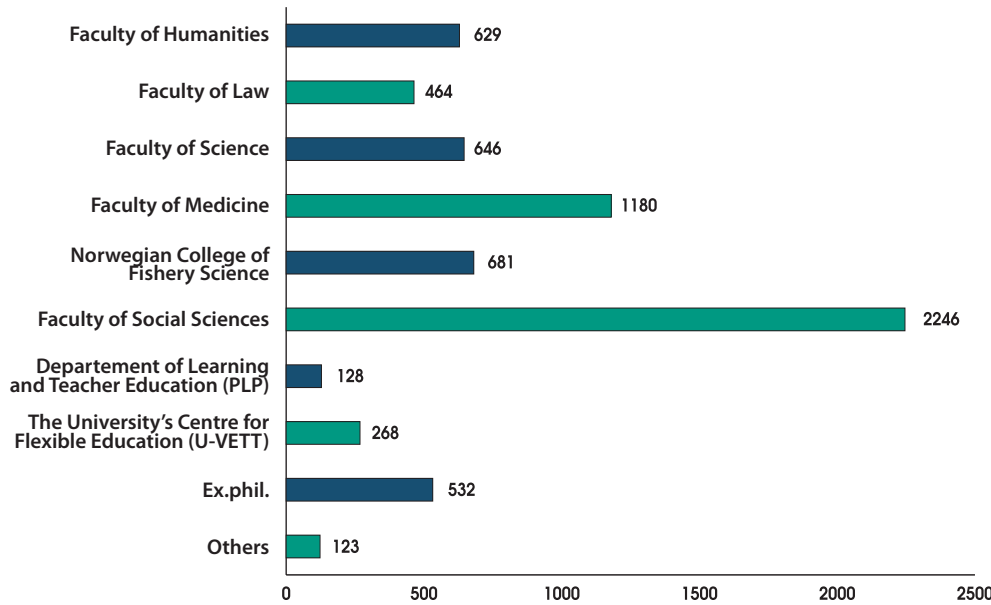

Postgraduate Certificate in Education (1 year)

Further and Continuing Education 2003-2004

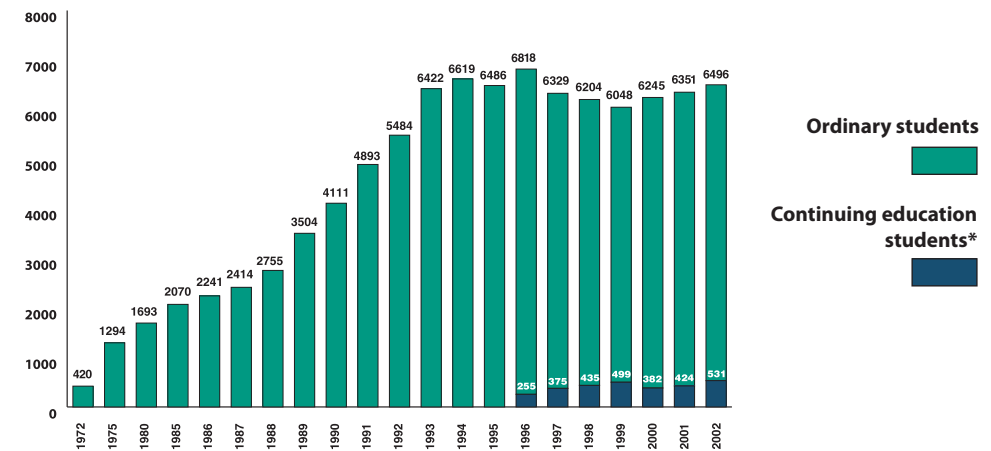

Action Learning
Adult Education
Alternative Science Studies for Teachers
Archaeology, Correspondence Studies
Art History
Business Development
Change in Popular Culture
Change Management
Change Management in Local Government
Competence Leadership
Computer Science, Continuing Education Courses
Continuing Education Courses for Teachers
Counselling
Creative Writing
E-commerce
English Courses in Worcester
English for Business and Administration
English, Postgraduate Studies
French, Foundation Course
Further Education Courses for Teachers in Comprehensive Schools
Further Education Courses for Teachers in Primary and Secondary Schools
Further Education Courses in Physics
Further Education Courses in Planning and Community Studies
Further Education Courses in Public Health
Geographical Information Systems – GIS
History, Correspondence Studies
Human Resources in times of

Organisational Change
Information and Communication
Technology and Didactics
Information and Communication
Technology for Teachers
Islam as Tradition and Lived Experience
Literature for Language Teaching
Local-based Development
Nature and Culture in Northern Norway
Nordic Languages and Literature, Intermediate Course
Nordic Local Government in Transition
Norwegian Security Politics and Strategic Agenda in Transition
Planning and Community Studies, Correspondence Studies
Project Administration
Sámi Culture
School Leadership and Management
Special Needs Education, Postgraduate Studies
The County Council as Regional Developer
The Modernisation of Regional and Municipality Administration
Health, Security and Environment (HSE) for Consultants
Understanding Culture, Interactions and Communications in Different Social Settings

Number of Students autumn 2002

Number of Students 1972-2002

* Continuing education students were not separated from the ordinary students until 1996