Collaboration between Estonia and Norway in the environmental field

Jon A. Markussen,
County Governor of Oslo and Akershus, Environmental Department

Biodiversity and Sustainabel Development in EEA grants cooperation.
Oslo 23.-24. November 2006

Ministry of Environment

National level

Directorate for Nature Management

Norwegian Pollution Control Authority

Department of Environment

County Governor of Oslo and Akershus

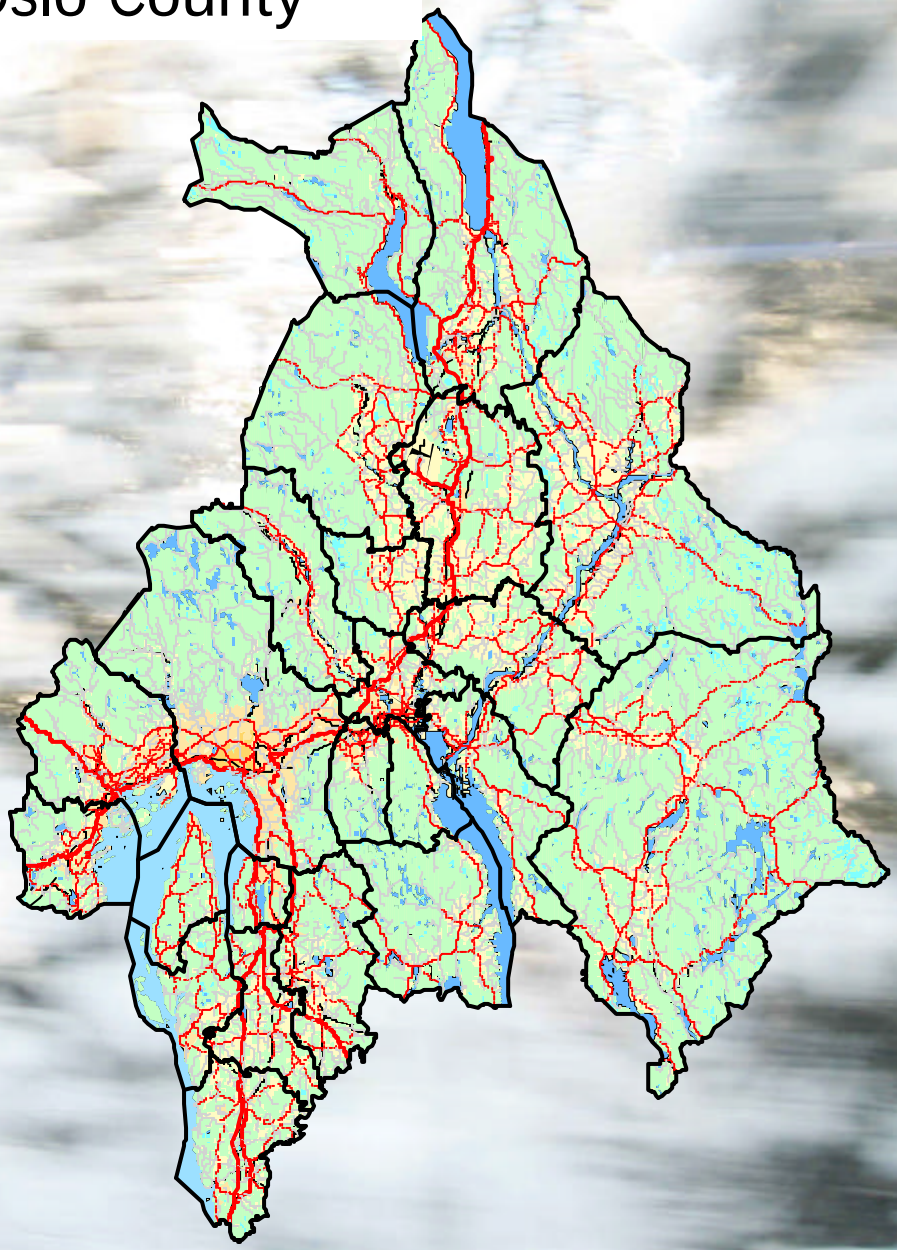

Regional level

Municipalities

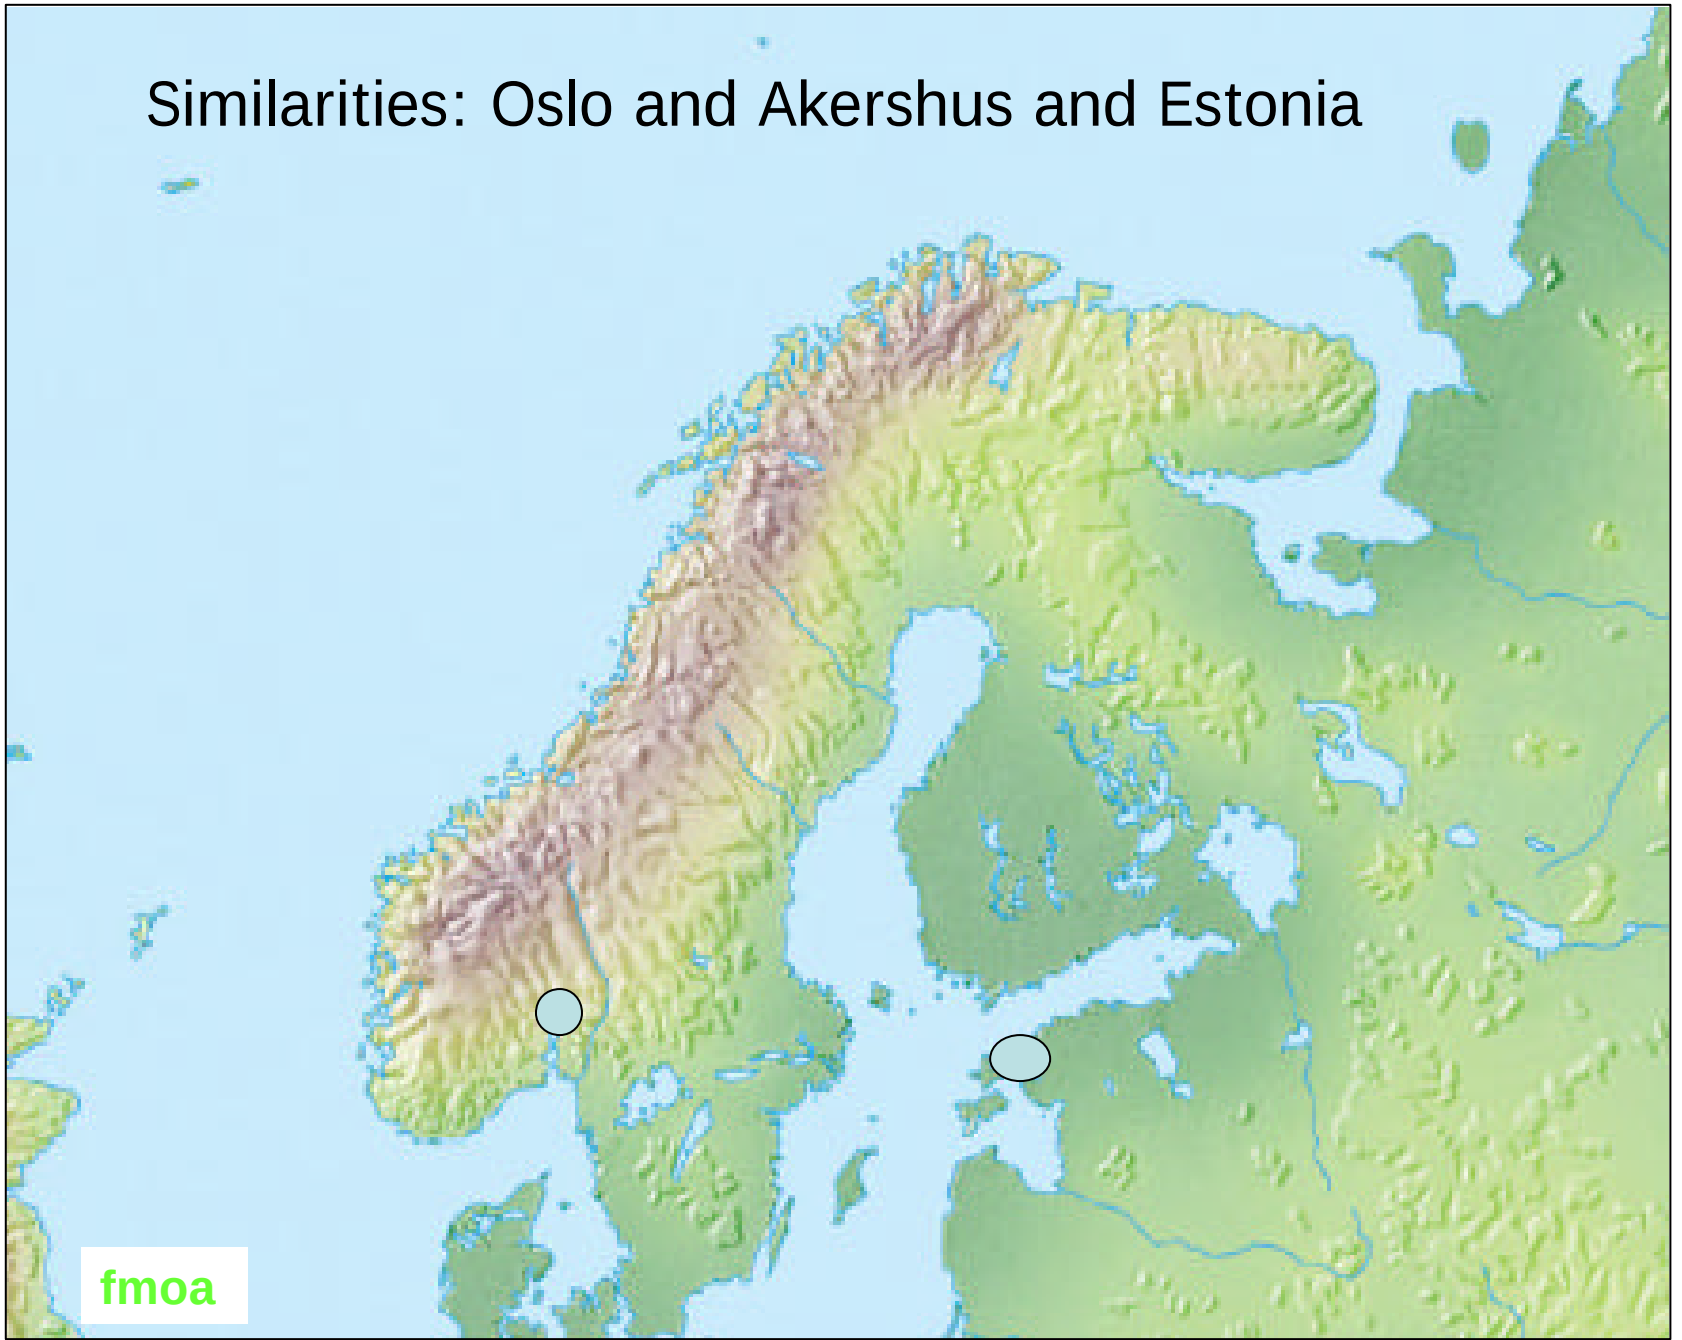

Local level

fmoa

Akershus and Oslo County

fmoa

Similarities: Oslo and Akershus and Estonia
fmoa

February 2003: Initial meetings between Estonian and Norwegian in Tallinn and Lahemaa National Park

June 2003: Field trip / meetings in Estonia, 11 Norwegians

September 2003: Estonian field trip / meetings in Norway, 10 persons

September 2003: The waste schooling, study trip to Norway, 48 persons

November 2004: Conference EEA Financial Mechanisms in Tallinn

June 2006: (SFT, DN, FM) Open call projects, and possible Norwegian contributions

fmoa

Among priorities from the Estonian Ministry of Environment is: Wildlife monitoring centre, seminatural habitats, management plans, salmon, crayfish, and....

Promotion of sustainable developement – resource use and management

Biodiversity, including 2010 target.

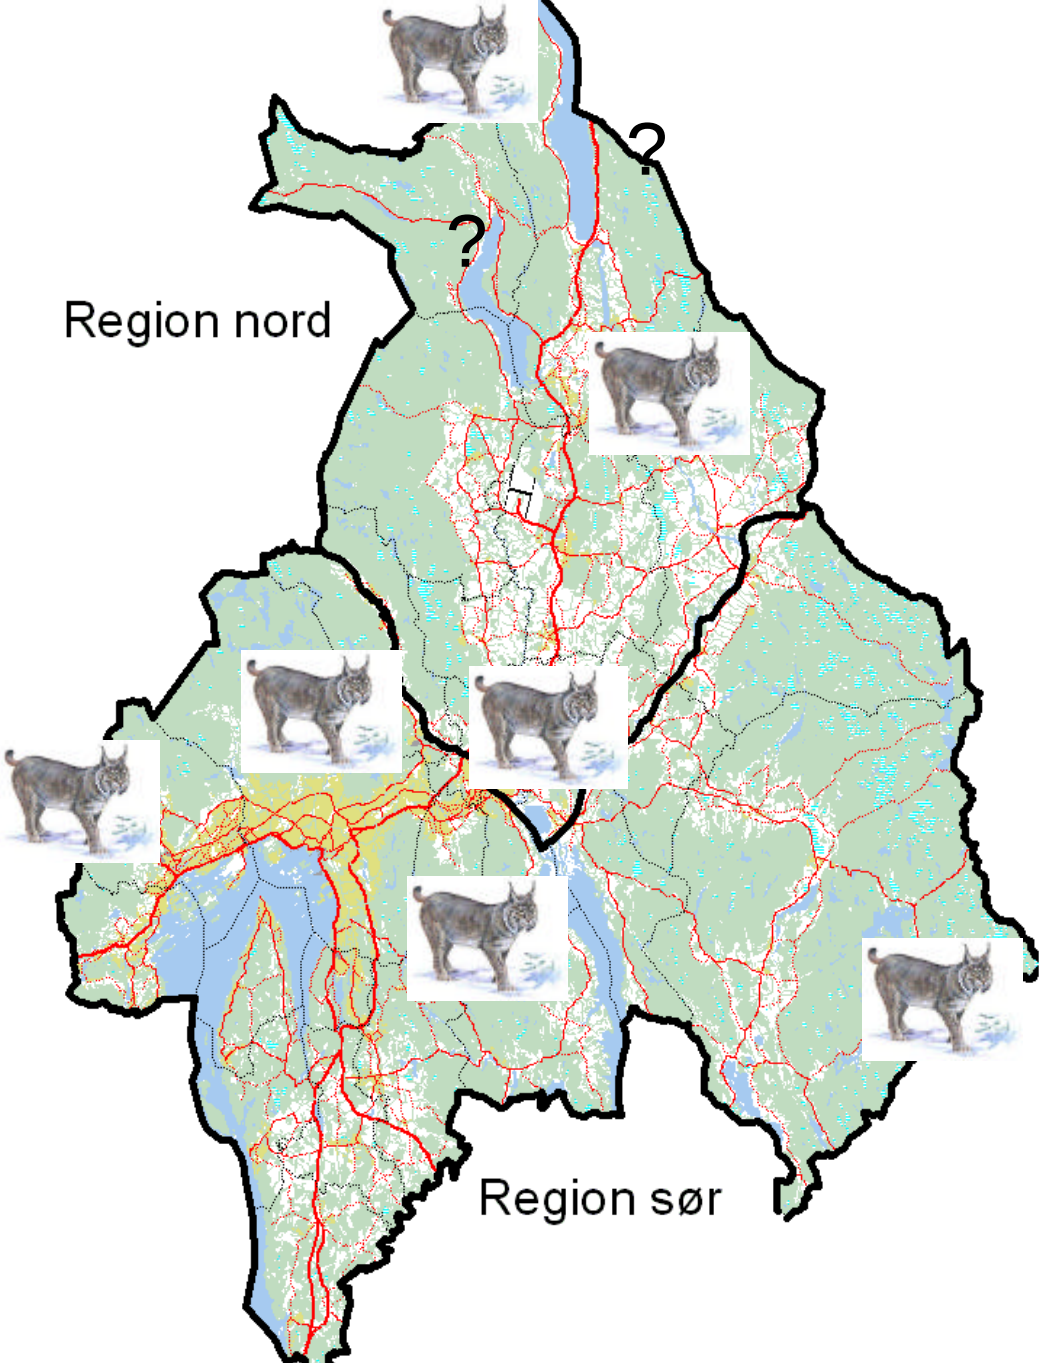

Nature Protection plans, as this from the Oslofjord, or Natura 2000 in Estonia

Developing monitoring systems for:
Air- and Ground water pollution

Institutional cooperation on national, regional and local levels

Monitoring Large carnivores:
Lynx family groups in Oslo and Akershus.
Total estimates:
22-28 animals

fmoa

Wast schooling, September 2003

Biodiversity preservation in Natura 2000 areas

NATURINFORMASJONS

