Doctoral Course

- in the Political Ecology series

Tromsø, 23-25 April 2008

Title: Sharing Ocean Space: Visions, Knowledge, Strategies, Tools

Day 1 (23 April)

Coffee 0900-0930

Opening; 0930-0945 Svein Jentoft

1. Visions of Coastal and Ocean Space
   0945-1200

   Susan Hanna:
   The Shifting Horizon: Evolving Visions of Coasts and Oceans

   Kevin St. Martin:
   Toward a Cartography of the Commons: Constituting the Political and Economic Possibilities of Place.

Lunch 1200-1300

2. Knowledge of Ocean Space
   1300-1500

   Einar Eythorsson:
   Local knowledge, cultural heritage and indigenous rights; a new platform for marine resource management in Finnmark?

   Jahn Petter Johnsen:
   Contemporary approaches to science and local knowledge

Coffee 1500 – 1530

Discussion 1530 1630

Student paper presentations 1630-1730

Day 2 (24 April)

3. Strategies
   0900-1200

Community- based management/territorial use-rights

Kevin St. Martin:
(Re)Connecting Community and Commons in New England Fisheries

Anita Maurstad:
Customs in common(s) - on local management of fjord fishing rights in Finnmark

Coffee:

Discussion

Lunch 1200-1300

Strategies ctd.
1300 1700

Rights based management

Susan Hanna:
Evolving forms of rights-based management in developed fisheries

Bjørn Hersoug:
Indigenous rights in a commercial environment - the case of Sami fishing rights in Finnmark county

Coffee

Co-management:

Svein Jentoft:
Co-management as a governability mechanism

Student paper presentations 1700 – 1800

Dinner at Árdna

Day 3 (25 April)

Emerging strategies and tools
0900- 12000

Kevin St. Martin:

The Missing Layer: Geo-technologies, Communities, and Implications for Marine Spatial Planning.

Susan Hanna:
Ocean Zoning, ecosystem-based management and markets for ecosystem services

Svein Jentoft
Step Zero for MPAs: What precedes implementation?

Coffee

Discussion

Lunch 1200-1300

Student presentations 1300 – 1500
Cofee