SHORT PROGRAMME

The short programme offered under Urban Ecological Planning are also part pf the two years, Master of Science Programme. However, these programme can be attended by the students and professionals who are not part of the full time Master of Science Programme. Norwegian students and other international students are especially encouraged to join these programmes. The short programme consist of the following mandatory courses. The short programme is presently planned for autumn 2001 and autumn 2003. The short programme is offered for intensive continuing education course for NORAD fellowship holders (the next application will be in January 2003 for the Autumn, 2003 course)

1. Urban Ecological Planning in Developing Countries - Project Work (5 credits)

2. Urban Ecological Planning - Methods (2.5 credits)

3. Urban Ecological Planning - Theory (2.5 credits)

Admission Requirements

Canditates should have a B.Sc in Architecture or Civil Engineering with a specialisation and/or 2-5 years of professional practice in urban planning and management. Candidates with other degrees may be considered if they have relevant specialisation and/or professional experience.

All lectures are given in English. A good working knowledge of English is therefore essential. The course is well suited for female applicants.

Age : Upper limit, 35 years.