

How to apply?

The application procedure consists of two steps. First, there is a semi-formal procedure to have your PhD proposal accepted by a supervisor. If accepted, the applicant and supervisor will jointly prepare an application for the formal enrolment into the PhD programme (within six months after commencing on the programme).

For the first step, applicants need to submit the following documentation:

The preliminary PhD application form is found here

CV, including list of any publications.

Transcript of BSc (BA) and MSc (MA) degrees.

PhD thesis proposal: 4-6 pages, containing title, background & justification, research questions, theoretical framework, methodologies, data collection and fieldwork, time frame, budget.

For applicants of quota scholarship (see Funding):

Documentation of funding for fieldwork and other expenses.

Documentation of institutional affiliation.

Application deadline: 1. February (for enrolment in August)

The application is sent to:

Dept. of Economics and Resource Management,
Norwegian University of Life Sciences,
P.O. Box 5003,
N-1432 Ås, Norway.
