

Polycarp Ikuenobe is Professor of Philosophy in the Department of Philosophy at Kent State University, Kent, Ohio, USA. He obtained his BA and MA in philosophy from the University of Ibadan, Nigeria, and Ph.D from Wayne State University, Detroit, Michigan, USA. He has published a book entitled, Philosophical Perspectives of Communalism and Morality in African Traditions, Lexington Books, 2006. And he has also published dozens of articles in the areas of African Philosophy, Philosophy of Race and Racism, Social and Political Philosophy, Philosophy of Law, Informal Logic and Critical Thinking. His articles have appeared in such journals as, Journal of Social Philosophy, Vera Lex, Philosophy East & West, Argumentation, Journal of Value Inquiry, International Studies in Philosophy, Journal of Philosophical Research, Metaphilosophy, Philosophical Papers, Studies in Philosophy and Education, Public Affairs Quarterly, Journal for the Theory of Social Behaviour, Educational Philosophy and Theory, among others. He has also edited a number of books including, Symposia, Readings in Philosophy: Libertarianism, and Symposia, Readings in Philosophy: Legal Positivism, Pearson Publishing, 2001.

