

Overview of the possible facilitations of examinations for students with different disabilities.

Please note that students need to apply for the facilities listed below. Application deadlines are 15. September and 15. February.

Students with reading and writing disabilities (dyslexia, dysgraphia)	Extended time Use of PC Use of secretary (demand single room) Oral presentation of examination questions Alternative form of examination (e.g. oral form instead of written) Necessary software Anonymous dyslexia certificate
Students with mobility impairment and/or motor difficulties	Adapted table and/or chair Use of secretary (demand single room) Use of PC Extended time Specific devices (mouse, keyboard, and the like) Alternative form of examination Assistant
Students with allergies	Extended time Single room with nothing to trigger allergies
Students with spinal-guards, neck- and writing-arm problems	Extended time Adapted table and/or chair Use of PC Ergonomic equipment Relaxation room Alternative form of examination
Students with psychological problems (mental health difficulties), exam anxiety, or similar	Extended time Private relaxation room Support person Alternative form of examination
Students with hearing impairment	Sign language interpreter at the oral examination Alternative form of examination Use of PC Extended time
Students with visual impairment	Assistant Examination formula in Braille or electronic form

	Necessary technical equipment
--	-------------------------------