Service Centre

The Police, the Directorate of Immigration, the Tax Administration and the Labour Inspection Authority have established a joint service centre, the Service Centre for Foreign Workers in Norway. There, you can get help to start employment as soon as possible.

The Service Centre has been established to help:

- EEA nationals
- Nationals of countries outside the EEA area who apply for a work permit to perform work that requires qualifications as a skilled worker
- Family members of persons in the above categories

You can get help with the following at the Service Centre:

- First-time work and residence permits
- Renewal of work and residence permits (you can also apply by post)
- Tax deduction cards
- D number: A registration number for foreign nationals in Norway not registered as immigrants with the Population Register
- Notification of immigration or change of address to the Population Register, including assignment of a personal identity number

Information and guidance is also available. Applications in connection with matters that cannot be decided at the Service Centre will be accepted and forwarded to the correct agency.

for Foreign Workers

It is important that you bring along all the documentation required for the processing of your application. You must therefore bring along the following when you come to the Service Centre:

If you are applying for a tax deduction card or work permit and residence permit for the first time:

- Your passport or a valid travel document
- Your employment contract/ proof of employment from your Norwegian employer
- Documentation of marriage and family relationships
- Documentation that you are a qualified skilled worker (only for nationals of countries outside the EEA area who are applying for work or residence permit)

If you are applying for a renewal, you must also bring along:

- Documentation of your income in Norway
- The D number, personal identity number or DUF number you have been assigned
- Documentation of a still valid offer of employment

Applications for renewal can be sent by post to the police where you live or are staying if the application is complete.

If the application is correctly filled in and all the required documentation is enclosed, you will receive a reply within 5 working days.

The Service Centre is located at Hagegata 28 at Tøyensenteret in Oslo. To get there, you can either take the underground or bus number 20, 60 or 67 to Tøyen.

The Service Centre is open from Monday to Friday from 9.00 to 15.00.
